FRIESIAN TABLE LAMP

ITEM #R28419

Friesians are an ancient breed of horses. One of their many unique features are their full manes and feathers on their feet. The lamp features a stylized representation with wild curling manes. The horse sculpture is made of iron with a dark bronze finish, displayed on a honed white marble column and a black marble foot. Beautifully sculptured, the lamp can flip to face right or left. The hardback rectangular shade is covered in light emitting black fabric.
