This hanging lantern distills both industrial and artisan influences with its signature ribbed black frame constructed from durable corrosion-resistant, composite polymer. Inside the ribs rests an elongated, clear glass shade that adds to the light fixture's modern flair. The design's blend of industrial and coastal inspiration makes it a perfect light fixture for updating your favorite spaces in and around your home. DURASHIELD by Progress Lighting is built to last. Constructed from a composite material with UV protection, DURASHIELD holds up even in the harshest weather conditions. This high-performance finish has a 5-year warranty and is resistant to rust, corrosion, and fading.
